10 Reasons to Love & Use Suri Fiber

- 1. Luster. The luster of Suri fiber gives the end product a rich appearance.
- 2. Elegant drape. Suri is known for its beautiful drape on the animals as well as in garments.
- 3. Soft with a slick, cool hand. The cool hand of Suri is like no other natural fiber. The soft, slick feel of Suri elevates your unique creations to another level.
- 4. Blends well with other fibers. Adding Suri to your blends enhances and complements other fibers, adding the luster, drape and cool hand that makes Suri so special.
- 5. Large variety of natural colors and dyes beautifully From the brightest white to the truest black, Suri can provide the colors and tones you're looking for. Considering working with dyes? Suri dyes evenly and retains its luster and softness, with many color choices to over-dye, as well!
- 6. Warmth and substance. Don't let the light weight fool you. Suri is wonderfully warm for those wintry days and long, chilly nights!
- 7. Versatile. Regardless of your textile interest, Suri is the fiber for you. Suri can be used for weaving, knitting, felting, crotcheting or any other textile medium that you want to pursue.
- 8. Strong fiber. As one of the strongest and longest natural fibers, Suri is an excellent choice for weaving, and can be used for warp or weft.
- 9. Environmentally friendly. Lacking lanolin, Suri can be washed without scouring using fewer chemicals and less energy to heat wash water.
- 10. Variety of grades. Suri fiber is suitable for a vast assortment of textile applications, from soft baby blankets to durable rugs!
